

SUSTAINING ART

People, Practice, Planet in Contemporary Art Conservation

Programme

Please note some changes may occur.

Presenters:

All talks on Day 3 will be streamed for online participants.

Richard Demarco (Short Film)

Adam Lockhart and Stephanie de Roemer

Of Archives and Social Sculpture - Discussion and Q&A

Christine Borland

Professor of Art, Northumbria University

Performing knowledge in virtual and actual growers' community

Maria Laura Petruzzellis

Netherland Institute for Conservation Art Science (NICAS)

Prepare to be unprepared! A journey across the global heritage science ecosystem

Clara von Waldthausen

University of Amsterdam

SBMK Project Photography: Bridging knowledge gaps in Dutch modern and contemporary photography collections

Libby Ireland & Amy Griffin

Tate Collection Care Sustainability Group

Alessandra Guarascio

Preparing, presenting and maintaining Fish Bowl: recording experience and knowledge through collaboration at M+

Ruth del Fresno-Guillem & Alexandra Gelis

Conservator and artist

Symbiotic relationships migrated plants

Fabiola Rocco

M+ Museum for Visual Culture
Museum Ecology: The Members Lounge ecosystem at M+

Gavin Renwick

University of Alberta
Sustainability in Indigenous Art from Canada and New Zealand

Alice Rose Archer

Independent
Sustainability and the Venice Biennale

Melissa Lewis

Modern British Conservation
Circular economy and green chemistry

Maja and Reuben Fowkes

Curators of traveling exhibition of the European "Studiotope" programme

Caitlin Southwick

Founder & Executive Director of Ki Kulture

Kim Kraczon

Ki Culture/ Gallery Climate Coalition
Role of the conservator as mediator in the dialog surrounding sustainable packaging materials

Marta Palmeira

Conservação e Restauro de Arte Contemporânea
Sharing as a way to reduce waste - The importance of second-hand goods

Evening (in-person):

Drinks reception at the conference host, Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art & Design (University of Dundee) Cooper Gallery, with viewing of the exhibition Chimera by Lucy Skaer and Rosalind Nashashibi.